Design that Sells.

For optimal branding the packaging of Jon's Natural Bread emphasizes the quality of the bread by allowing it to show through the bag. A paper label with a watercolor illustration wraps around each loaf. Labels are printed with soy ink and each label has "All Organic Flour" incorporated into the graphics.

Graphic Design for packaging entails consideration of product display objectives for retail sale on shelves, islands or endcaps. Knowledge required of the Graphic Artist for package design includes technical mandates and material requirements.

Label size: 4.125 x 10.75"

Made using water, freshly ground whole wheat flour*, enriched wheat flour*,
 Jons' original light sourdough culture and sea salt.
